NEW Draft Diploma Exams Marking Sessions – 2017 – 2018

The marking of diploma exam writing assignments takes place shortly after the diploma exam has been administered. All writing assignments are marked by teachers selected from among those who have been recommended as markers by their superintendents to the Provincial Assessment Sector. Teachers who wish to be recommended as markers for the January or June diploma exams should inform their principals. A teacher must clearly indicate to the principal which diploma exam he or she wishes to mark. Teachers may also be nominated to participate in Provincial Assessment working groups.

Letters to petition for marker and working group nominations are distributed to school authorities on the dates below. Nomination recommendations must be returned to Alberta Education by the deadline date.
